2022: ISSUE 2 Abortion Rights in New Hampshire

Abortion is legal in New Hampshire, and the "Live Free or Die" State has a long, bipartisan history of supporting abortion access. However, in June 2021, Governor Sununu signed the first abortion ban in modern history, banning abortions after 24 weeks. In June 2022, the U.S. Supreme Court, in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, eliminated the federal right to abortion, leaving abortion rights up to the states. New Hampshire is the only state in New England that has not protected the right to abortion in state law.

A NOTE ON INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE

While women are the majority of people who need abortion care, our language in this report (including "pregnant person" and "people who can become pregnant") reflects and acknowledges that other marginalized groups, including trans men, nonbinary and genderqueer folks who have uteruses, also need access to abortion and reproductive health care.
